

nonPareil Institute
Student Code of Conduct
September, 2010

nonPareil Institute (nP) welcomes you as one of the nP 'crew' members! We're excited that you have chosen nP to assist you with skills training in technology and related studies. To better serve you and your fellow crew members, we have provided this handbook which outlines a code of conduct that we expect all of our crew members to follow.

The following guidelines are meant to promote a positive, professional learning environment where the focus is on learning and not on appearance. The dress and grooming of nP students are expected to be in keeping with accepted community standards. Students and parents may determine the student's dress standards, provided they comply with the general guidelines set out below:

- Shoes must be worn at all times
- Clothing items with provocative, offensive, violent, drug related, gang related pictures or slogans are not permitted
- Clothing should be worn for the purpose with which it was designed - no undergarments or pajamas are to be worn as outerwear
- Undergarments should not be visible at any time
- Pants and other articles of clothing that are torn, ragged, frayed or pants with holes are not permitted
- Sagging pants are not allowed - jeans, slacks, shorts and all other pants must be worn at or about the waist at all times
- Students shall come to NP clean, neat and properly groomed so they are not a health or safety hazard to others
- Males: shirts with sleeves must be worn at all times
- Females: see-through, bare midriff, halter type, shoulder baring, or low-cut clothing is not permitted

Note: nonPareil Institute prohibits any clothing or grooming that they (nP) may determine to cause disruption or interference with normal operations.

nonPareil Institute Student Code of Conduct

We at nonPareil Institute are committed to the success of all of our students. nP understands the challenges that those affected with Autism Spectrum Disorder/Asperger's have in relation to social interaction, and how this could impair the student's capacity to sometimes understand their inappropriate conduct.

Thus, working with parents and students closely will be vital in the resolution of any behavior problems. The Code of Conduct is in place to ensure all students have the opportunity for a safe learning environment.

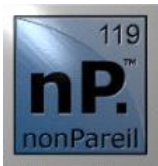

Actions taken will be designed to improve behavior and encourage students to adhere to their responsibilities of the nonPareil community.
